End of summer special offers in Spain with PV-Holidays

European holiday specialist PV-Holidays, also known as Pierre & Vacances, is offering great discount holidays at its Bonmont Bonavista resort in Spain. This deal includes up to 20 per cent savings on booking for arrival between now and 8th November 2008.

With this offer, customers will be able to enjoy the luxury of a three-star resort in a prime location at a reduced price. Two-bedroom apartments for up to five people are available for four-night stays with a 15 per cent saving and there is a 20 per cent discount off the normal price for seven-nights bookings. All accommodation, including baby-friendly apartments, can be booked until one day prior to departure with no additional charge.

Bonmont Bonavista is situated on the Costa Dorada in Spain's Catalonia region, which enjoys 300 days of sunshine per year. It offers a number of leisure activities to suit all tastes including families and children. All entertainment activities for children and adults in the residence are included in the price. Facilities on-site include a 400m² heated fun pool with upstream swimming, relaxing water jets, two Jacuzzis and a children's pool.

The resort enjoys a prime location near the prestigious 18-hole Bonmont Golf course and is easily accessible from both Barcelona and Reus airports. In addition, it is ideally located for the long and sandy Platja Cristal and Cambrils beaches, as well as the Aquapolis water park and the fabulous Port Aventura theme park.

The Bonmont Bonavista resort is one of 13 coastline properties owned by PV-Holidays in Spain. Accommodation varies from two-star hotels to luxury resorts.
