Cannes film Festival accommodation from just £32 per person, per night

French self-catering accommodation specialist P&V is offering a range of affordable accommodation on the French Riviera, for those who want to experience the glitz and glamour of the Cannes Film Festival whilst staying within a tight budget. Accommodation includes centrally located properties just 50m from Cannes Beach, with prices starting from as little as £32 per person, per night.

The Cannes Film Festival takes place between the 13th – 24th May 2009 and many of P&V's properties are ideally located for both celebrity spotting at the 'Palais des Festivals' in Cannes and exploring the beaches and towns along the French Riviera, including the lively harbour of Antibes and picturesque Mandelieu.

Weekend breaks in Cannes

The below properties have availability for the opening night of the Cannes Film Festival (13th May 2009), giving guests an ideal opportunity to spot their favourite stars on the famous red carpet.

Residence Pierre & Vacances Cannes Beach

Three nights in a studio apartment sleeping two people starts from £328 per apartment from the 13th – 16th May 2009 – just £55 per person, per night.

Located just 50m from the beach and with stunning sea views, the Pierre & Vacances Cannes Beach property is in an ideal location for a short break on the French Riviera. The 'Palais des Festivals,' where the Film Festival takes place, is less than ten minutes away and the Cannes-La-Bocca shopping quarter is on the property's doorstep. All apartments are equipped with terraces or balconies and the accommodation also includes a fitness suite, Jacuzzi and restaurant.
